Borden Land Grant in Rockbridge County, Virginia
The base of this map was researched and compiled by J. Raymond Hildebrand in 1964 for the Historical Society of Western Virginia. The grid overlay and list of purchasers were created by Marty Hiatt and Les Querry in 2021. A few of the names and dates have been updated, but no attempt was made to verify all information presented on the 1964 map. Descriptions of the parcels can be found in the deed books of Orange County before 1746 and Augusta County before 1778 when Rockbridge County was established.
A copy of the enhanced map has been donated to the Historical Society of Western Virginia with permission to reproduce it for support of the Society. © 2021
NOTE:
THIS MAP SHOWS IN GENERAL THE LOCATION OF THE GRANTS FROM BENJAMIN BORDEN, SENIOR. THE VACANT AREAS WERE SOLD LATER BY HIS HEIRS. SOME OF THESE WERE MOUNTAINOUS TRACTS FOR WHICH THERE WAS NO DEMAND UNTIL AFTER 1800. SOME OF BORDEN'S DEEDS OVERLAPPED HIS WESTERN LINE ALONG WALKER CREEK, AND THERE IS SOME DOUBT THAT THE THORN HILL AREA TO THE SOUTH IS FAR TOO CONSTRICTED TO TAKE OF THE LAND AS SHOWN ON THE U.S.G.S. MAP SHEETS. THIS HAS ALWAYS BEEN QUESTIONED BY RESEARCHERS. THE OUTSIDE BOUNDARY DATA WAS FURNISHED BY THE LAND OFFICE IN RICHMOND. (PATENT BOOK 18, PAGE 360.)
