MAY MEETING

The next meeting of the Virginia Genealogical Society will be Friday, May 14, 1982, 8:00 p.m., at the Headquarters of the Richmond Council of Garden Clubs, 4015 Hermitage Road, Richmond.

Our speaker will be Mr. Fred Anderson, Executive Director of the Baptist Historical Society. Mr. Anderson's subject will be the records in the collection of the Baptist Historical Society at the University of Richmond.

The V.G.S. Spring Genealogical Conference was held April 16-17, 1982, at the Holiday Inn-Downtown in Richmond. More than 150 people were present to hear talks on research in various counties and areas of the state, the holdings of various depositories here in Richmond, records of the Revolutionary War and Civil War and sessions on beginning research and about hereditary societies. Especially enjoyed were the talks by Helen A. M. Leary at the Friday night banquet and John Frederick Dorman at the Saturday luncheon. Genealogical books for sale were displayed by the Hearthstone Bookshop from Alexandria and by V.G.S. member Dr. Benjamin Weisiger.

Great thanks are due to all those members who worked to make the conference a success and most especially to the speakers who shared their knowledge with us.
